THE " LEEN FA" CASE. The Objef Justice gave judgment in the above case this morning. His Lordship further remarked that Mi Falconer had incurred great risk in this matter; and said that it would be well if merchants would be more careful in their consideration of the intent and scope of the Merchant Shipping Act. Our worthy Chaplain has we notice, been preferred to a Canonry in St. John's Cathodral, Hongkong. FOREIGNERS IN CHINESE NAVAL SERVICE A matter of very considerable interest was, not very long ago, brought to notice, by a charge which was preferred against a Manilaman who was employed on board of the Chinese so-called "gun-boat" Pluto. The first impression of the Law Secretary upon the question of jurisdiction, usmely that the Supreme Court had not jurisdiction with regard to an offence committed on board a vessel flying the Chinese flag, was, after maturer consideration, reversed; in its general bearings, is, however, one of

It would, as distinctly laid down in the subject to take service in a bona fide Chiwould not be to take him out of the jurisrather something like Revenue cruisers than men of war, and are not employed for The Dragon fing recently notified by Sir Henry Keppel is, as we are informed, in reality the private flag of the Emperor of China, and is placed only upon vessels belonging to His Imperial Majesty himself, nobody else daring to fly it. The local gunboats are the property of the local officials, and merely fly pendants stating in Chinese characters to whom they belong. Thus the "gunboat" Tungche, which has recently acquired some notoriety, is the private property of Tseng-kwo-fan, and does not fly the Imperial but the Vice-Regal flag. So far, therefore, as the commission of these so-called gunboats is concerned, there is nothing which makes service in them by British subjects an infraction of The Shaft for the Ajax, having been rates, or putting down petty disturbances completed at Messrs. D. Muirhead & Co.'s in the neighbourhood of the ports at which they are stationed, there is nothing to prevent foreigners legally taking service upon > if, however, actual warfare broke out, the matter would of course assume a different aspect. Supposing these vessels to be engaged in operations designed to suppress what was officially declared to be a civil war, and not a mere breach of the peace, the British or other foreign subjects serving upon them would be infringing neutrality and practically causing us to take a part in the issue of the civil war. It is in order to prevent such a contingency as this, that the provision in the Order in Council has been inserted. It is therein laid down that any British subject who, without the icense of Her Majesty, takes part in any operations of war in the service of the Emperor of China against any persons sugaged in carrying on war, insurrection or rebellion against the Emperor of China shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour and be liable to imprisoument for a term not exceeding two years with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding 5,000 dollars, or by a fine not exceeding 5,000 dollars without imprisonment. That this measure is desirable and neces-

Those for calculating the prices of tea in dollars or pence have been copied from the more extended tables, by the kind permission of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq. The last section of the same chapter on Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick R. Hurper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia.

The appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the China Pilot.' With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
